RE: Average Video Announcement and Video Release Windows (as of 3/3/10)

The following are theatrical release-to-video release averages and theatrical release-to-video announcement averages compiled from our track report. In addition to annual averages, quarterly data is included for each year and for each distributor. The report is necessarily a snapshot of a moving picture. It does not include 2009 releases from these distributors without DVD release dates, of which there are currently ten (10); seven (7) from the Fourth Quarter alone. One month = 30 days.

1) Average video release window by year:
