NATO Statement on Today's Incident in Tennessee

(Washington, D.C.; August 5, 2015) The National Association of Theatre Owners is grateful to the theater staff and first responders who acted so quickly and efficiently to end today's incident without serious injury. Whether it is in churches, schools, malls, theaters or other public places, people have the right to go about their lives in peace and safety. The safety of our guests and employees is, and always will be, our industry's highest priority.
